

Brierley Forest Golf Club

PRIVACY, GDPR AND DATA PROTECTION POLICY 2023

What information do we collect about you?

When you join as a member, visit or enter an open competition or event at our Golf Club we collect only the information required from you to be able to fulfil our contractual obligations, which includes being able to contact you for e.g., send you a subscription renewal notice, Committee meeting and AGM notices and to administrate competitions at the club etc.

With your permission, we may also collect further information through our website, sign-up sheets, marketing leaflets, competition entry forms and booking forms, which allows us to contact you regarding events and offers at the club.

If you are an employee or are applying for a job at Brierley Forest Golf Club, there are bespoke privacy notices that apply to you and are issued and available separately.

How the information about you will be used.

When you join as a member, visit or enter an open competition or society event we may share your information with external and internal data processors. Your personal data is controlled internally by the club's appointed data protection officer who adheres to our internal data protection policies and procedures.

Marketing

You may have opted in for us to be able to correspond with you regarding our activities including events and competitions by way of post, telephone, email, and SMS. We don't share your data with external marketing companies who would contact you this way. If you have consented to this correspondence, you can opt out at any time.

Individuals Rights

You have the right to request a copy of the information we hold about you. If you would like a copy of this information, please write to the data controller at the address mentioned below.

We want to make sure that your personal information is accurate and up to date you may ask us to correct or erase information that you think is inaccurate.

At the time of collecting data, you have the right to object to the club holding certain information about you.

CCTV

CCTV cameras are used to monitor the premises and assets. This data is stored securely via a password protected system to which only authorised persons have access. The data captured by the CCTV cameras may be used in the event of a disciplinary or criminal action.

PDQ Machines – Card payment acceptance

We use a third-party provider to facilitate card payments. No data is stored via these devices when taking payments.

Vouchers

Our system holds balances and transactions relating to vouchers for us to administrate the system. The data is held securely for administration purposes until it expires, it is then destroyed in line with our GDPR policy.

WiFi

Is available for access only, no data of the user or access is collected or stored.

Cookies and links to other websites

Our website may use cookies to enable us to provide you with a better user experience.

Our website may contain links to third party websites. These third-party websites have their own privacy policies and we do not accept any responsibility or liability for these policies.

Changes to our privacy policy

We keep our privacy policy under regular review and will place any updates on our website and noticeboard. This privacy policy was last updated on 19th May 2023.
